PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The LWCCG Board meeting for March 27th will start at 6:00 P.M. The General Membership will follow at 7:00 P.M.. There will be no General Membership Meeting in April.

At our February meeting the Officers and Board members were elected for 2013. The only change was the inclusion of Lydia Foght and Joan Bonner to our Executive Board. During the Board meeting we were informed by Allen Kancher that Brian Cheramie will no longer sponsor the Charlie Frank Decorative Decoy competition. The Board voted to fund this competition for 2013. A decision will be made by the new Executive Committee as to how we will handle this category in the future.

The Board also voted to sponsor a table at the Louisiana Sportsman Show in Gonzales to promote our Festival.

Gene Hebert volunteered to man the table for the four days of this event. He reported after the event that he was able to sign-up several vendors for display tables for our Festival and that there was a great deal of in-

LWCCG MINUTES FOR THE FEBRUARY 27, 2013 GENERAL MEETING

The meeting opened at 7:30 P.M. Richard announced that he brought poster and flyers for members to distribute and post, and that we had a few club shirts available to sell and will be getting some more shortly. The Rules Book should be out by the next meeting. Joan has some flyers made up for the fine arts and students (children).

Approval was voted on by the membership to order more club shirts and 3 burgundy and 3 green table covers with our club logo.

Richard announced that we need a new Sponsorship Chairman since Allan Kancher has given notice that he will no longer be handling that position. Richard said that whoever takes the position will receive help and support. Dickey and Mr. Curt volunteered to help hand this. Several others said they will also assist with this position.

Milo notified us that the "All in Good Taste" Art Exhibit and Food tasting event has been canceled for this year. Hopefully it will return next year.

There will be a Sportsman Show in Gonzales March 14-March 17. It was suggested by a member that we get a table there to help advertise our Festival. It was voted and approved. Gene Hebert volunteered to man the table each day along with some others who said they would attend.

Josh Guge passed the word along that his father Bob was is doing better and may be able to make our Festival.

Last month Chris Weaver suggested we put an add in the Times Picayune for a membership drive. It has been posted in the paper and we are waiting to see if we get any response.

Richard introduce Mrs. Beeson a past artist of the year and an original and long time member of the club and said he was glad to see her back with us again.

Show and Tell : See Pictures and explanations in this newsletter.

Prize drawings were held and being no further business meeting adjourned at 8:45 P.M..

SHOW AND TELL

Mike Bonner shows a Mallard Hen which he recently carved. He is hoping the owner of the very first duck he carved will be willing to swap this one for his first.

Claude Rawls shows a Swallow Tail Kite which he carved from one of the pieces of tupelo which Mrs. Frank brought and donated to be distributed at one of our meetings.

Chris Weaver Shows a Green Wing Teal which he carved from a piece of cypress and painted.
