Show & Tell

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING MINUTES FOR WEDNESDAY March 27, 2019

Gene opened the meeting by welcoming guest Joan's brother Jim, which was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Gene also wished Mr. Curt a happy 90th birthday which will occur on Sunday March 31st. He then told members about the Houma show; he said they had a large number of auction pieces this year.

The Whale Fest is coming up in Gretna on Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. It is held on the school grounds and there will be 2 tents available for carving demos. The kids and their families have been very interested in watching these demos. There are also many other types of art demos going on. Some who plan to attend are Kal, Ralph, Gene, and Mr. Guidry.

Ducks Unlimited Convention is coming up at the Houma Convention center this year on July 19/20. We will have a table there. The Blue Bonnet Nature Center Decoy Show in Baton Rouge is also coming up August 17. They will be honoring Curt Fabre' this year. The banquet will be on Friday at Ralph & Kacoos.

Mr. Gerard Ruth said he has 2 signed and numbered prints he is donating tonight to be raffled or auctioned at our festival with the duck stamp print he donated last meeting.

Gene said that we plan to have soap carving for kids this year at our festival and will probably put a sign out at the registration desk. There will be no prizes; it's just for the younger children to try.

We will have a table at the Ward Festival and will be bringing flyers and competition booklets to distribute. We will also be bring Harvey Lewis books to sell.

John Scallan is trying to make contact with Pro Bass and talked with Leslie Smith, coordinator about a demo to advertise and help promote our festival. He said he plans to contact Academy as well.

Being no further business. Show & Tell was presented and door prizes were given out. The meeting adjourned AT 8:10 p.m.
